Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Cheney entertained several of Mr. Cheney's fellow members of the Phi Delta Theta society, E. C. Mower of Burlington, Hollis Gray of Cambridge and Glenn Gould of Elmore being those from out of town. This included the wives, and sweethearts of the bachelor members. It proved to be a very pleasant event.

While working on the high beams of his barn Monday morning Geo. E. Town stepped on the panel of an old door, which formed a part of the flooring, and took a drop to the main floor, a distance of 14 feet. One arm was badly bruised and his right foot disabled. Dr. Rublee attended the injured man, and expects to have him around again in a short time, as no bones were broken.

It will be remembered that the remains of Flavius, daughter of W. H. Robinson, who died last December at Philadelphia, were brought here for interment in the family lot in Pleasant View Cemetery. This work was attended to by her uncles, J. A. and E. S. Robinson, who, with the assistance of another uncle, F. P. of Burlington, have lately set a marker at the head of the little grave.

Gospel mission services were commenced last evening in the tent set up at the corner of Bridge and River streets. These meetings are in charge of Elder F. W. Fairbanks, Evangelist, assisted by Elder S. Clark and Elder Daniel Gregory, pastor of the A. C. church. The tent services commenced at 7:45 p. m., but open air meetings are held at various places during the hour preceding from the "Gospel Wagon." The usual cordial invitation to attend is extended.

Work is being carried on at the tannery in a vigorous manner, the greatest change being the moving of the battery of boilers further west and fronting them to the east. This change brings the smokestacks in direct line with the big chimney and gives room for additional boiler capacity, if found necessary when the plant is started up. The vats will be nearly completed this week. It is a scene of industry in and about the building and will continue for some weeks yet, before the tanning of leather commences.

Wm. Penn arrived in town last Saturday and is making his headquarters at H. J. Dwinell's store. He is dignified in appearance, and so far has not spoken a word to any of the hundreds that have greeted him and offered him the freedom of the village.

Miss Annie Robinson, daughter of F. C. Robinson of Burlington, has been in town two weeks, visiting her friends, making her stopping place with her uncle, Dr. J. A. Robinson. She left Monday morning for Cabot, where she will visit several uncles and her grandmother.

Guy Herriek, who started in the milk business on his own account a year or so ago, branched out last Saturday with a verystylish delivery wagon, bearing the lettering "Clover Leaf Dairy" and "Purest milk." He furnishes good milk and seems to be thriving from so doing.

It is said the Morris-town Republican Committee is on the "warpath" and want to raise from $75 to $100 for campaign expenses, including a banner, to be suspended on a line reaching from The Randall to the Fleetwood block, the old location. The Committee is desirous that Republicans will bear this request in mind and be ready, when called upon, with a little of the "ready." It is proposed to conduct a vigorous campaign, and the amount asked for is not out of bounds.

Harry Ellsworth has gone to Colorado.

"Dr." Sheldon of Newport, is visiting old friends in town.

Roscoe Fuller of Cambridge Junction was here yesterday.
